WHO WE ARE

The Brothers of Charity Services South East offer day, residential, respite, assessment and clinical services to people of all ages who have an intellectual disability. We aim for excellence in service provision and to this end, we integrate the best of current research and knowledge to promote partnership with those people who choose our services, their families and local communities and the statutory authorities.

We promote advocacy and accountability in all areas of our services and support each individual's dignity and human rights.

The Brothers of Charity Services South East provides a range of services located throughout Tipperary South Riding and in Waterford city and county.

Services are delivered through a number of service areas located in each area:

MULTI-DISCIPLINARY SUPPORTS

Multidisciplinary Services are provided through a Team, which includes Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Social Workers and Speech and Language Therapists.

The Multidisciplinary Team work directly with individuals and their families, and staff in the various Brothers of Charity Services sharing skills, intervention strategies and good practice ideas, so as to support the individuals and to help them realise their potential for growth, development, health and well being.

There are two Teams in operation, one in Waterford and one in South Tipperary.
